SCHÉISSENDËMPEL

You can get out at the Schéissendëmpel car park and take a closer look at the impressive rock formations. A hiking guide accompanies you and gives explanations about the imposing sandstone rock formations, the newly created modern staircase and the highlight of the region, the waterfall Schéissendëmpel.

The walking tour lasts 45 minutes. Please make sure to wear good shoes, because the hiking trail is hilly and you will be walking on sandy ground.

BEAUFORT

In Beaufort there are two castles: a medieval castle ruin as well as a Renaissance castle from the 17th century. This castle was inhabited by the last owner Madame Anne-Marie Linckels, until 2012. In 2013 the castle was opened to the public.

The ancient castle had been built in different periods between 1150 and 1650 and had never been destroyed by acts of war. Many visitors come to Beaufort. Besides the castle, there are other attractions like a nice campsite with an adventure swimming pool, the hiking trails and the Mullerthal Trail next to the rock formations and Beaufort's Ice Park, which turns into a skate park during summer.

VIANDEN

The small medieval town of Vianden attracts thousands of visitors every year.

The inhabitants of Vianden have always been clever craftsmen. On the markets in Vianden they sold their manufactured products and bought the goods they needed. Nevertheless, they also loved art. The ambulant Vianden whitewashers ("Veiner Weisserten") and musicians displayed their happy mood and humorous mischievousness throughout the country, and everybody was dancing to the tunes of the Vianden musicians. The citizens of Vianden have stayed faithful to their old traditions. In autumn they celebrate their ancient folklore customs: the nut-fair, the St. Martin Fire, their carnival and their specific Good-Friday celebration called "Jaudes". With nearly 200.000 visitors each year, Vianden Castle is the most visited monument in the Grand Duchy. It was constructed between the 11th and 14th centuries on the foundations of a Roman 'castellum' and a Carolingian refuge.

During our stop you have 2 hours of free time that you can plan for yourself. You may take advantage of the variety of restaurants, visit the castle of Vianden, or take the chairlift.

ECHTERNACH

Echternach is the oldest city of Luxembourg. Even before the city was founded in 698 by the Benedictine monk Willibrord, the Romans had already built a large Roman villa in Echternach. In the following centuries the Benedictine monks developed a very high-quality writing school. For this reason, several European kings and emperors ordered their books in Echternach. The abbey was dissolved after the French Revolution. One of the most popular festivities is the Echternach Hopping Procession, held on Pentecost Tuesday, which is part of UNESCO's Intangible Cultural Heritage.

During our stop in Echternach, you can join a 45-minute guided city tour, which includes the Basilica, the outdoor facilities of the abbey and the market square.
