“Stories and trip through classical Neapolitan song from the 19th to the 20th century”

Four musicians, mandolin, guitar, bass/cello, clarinet/sax + man voice, as well as a special guest (woman voice), will transport you into the magical world of Neapolitan song, the best known in the world, in a "celestial" atmosphere of a former 18th century church, today a temple of Neapolitan song. The church/theater is located in the center of Naples, near the Maschio Angioino, Galleria Umberto I°, Teatro San Carlo, Piazza del Plebiscito. A show of approximately 90 minutes of the most beautiful Neapolitan melodies, accompanied by excellent musicians with arrangements and sounds that will involve the spectator. The show will be surrounded by graphic images that will strengthen the performance of songs such as: 'O SOLE MIO, TORNA 'A SURRIENTO, FUNICULI' FUNICULA', VOCE 'E NOTTE, MALAFEMMENA, MANDULINATA 'A NAPULE, TU 'VUO 'FA L' AMERICAN; just to name a few. There will be moments of funny stories and anecdotes from the poets and composers of the 19th and 20th centuries. The spectator will be the protagonist of our concert, he will be involved and dragged into singing.

Our motto is: Good music and lots of fun!!
