

Information for the cruise with the ship La Paloma Rhine in Flames - July, 5, 2025

Dear guests,

thank you for being interested in the boat trip at Rhine in Flames on 5th July 2025. In this leaflet we would like to introduce the ship La Paloma to you. It belongs to the Marksburgschiffahrt Vomfell. The ship has a length of 40 metres and provides approx. 230 seats for guests during Rhine in Flames. The family owned onboard kitchen serves a freshly made two course dinner:

Menu 2025

- Starter: Mixed leaf salad with chopped walnuts, pomegranate seeds, and a selection of antipasti. Bread basket and white cheese with herbs.
- Main course: Zurich-style veal strips with spätzle and zucchini boats.
- Vegetarian option: Salad as described above, two types of tortellini with summer vegetables and fresh wild mushrooms in a cream sauce.
- Guests who do not prefer to eat meat should directly book the vegetarian menu.

All-inclusive

On board drinks such as non-alcoholic drinks, wine, beer, and hot beverages are included. You are booking the worry-free package aboard La Paloma. There will be live entertainment music on board. The atmosphere, friendly service, and food on board are always highly praised, making the trip on La Paloma very popular with our guests.

On 5th July the La Paloma will be ready to embarque at approx. 5p.m. at pier 16 at the Rheinstrasse in Rüdesheim. The ship will head towards the Loreley to the romantic upper middle-rhine-valley, wich was declared to a UNESCO world heritage in 2002. With optimal water level all the way to the famous Loreley cliff. Here the ship turns back to meet the other ships at around 10 p.m. by Trechtingshausen. This is where the numerous fireworks start. The ship convoy goes past many huge fireworks and bengali lit castles back to Rüdesheim. After the final fireworks the ship docks in Rüdesheim (around midnight).

Please note: The journey times and piers can vary at any time due to security arrangements!

Info: 18th October 2024
